

PRAWET JANTHARAT ED.D.

1639 Irving Street N.W., Washington D.C. 20010-2746

pjantharat@gmail.com

www.siamwestdc.com

Adobe classroom room <http://connectnow.acrobat.com/prawet> Tel: 202-234-8516

Skype: prawetJ

Professional Training/ Education	Work Experiences	Professional Membership/Publications
Special Training	Present:	Member Professional Organizations
Certified as MBTI (Myers Briggs Type Indicator) Practitioner Trained in Community Language Learning and Counseling, the Silent Way and Strategic Teaching Approach	Independent Language Consultant SiamWest Services, mainly in language instruction and Thai language testing External Thai language Examiner for Critical Language Program for Samford University, University of Alabama, University of Arizona, Ohio University, and Columbia University	AAS--Association for Asian Studies ACTFL--American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages ATP--Association for Psychological Types COTSEAL--Council of Teachers of Southeast Asian Languages TESOL--Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages
Education	Member of Proficiency Test Developer, Sirindhorn Thai Language Center, Chulalongkorn University	Publications
Ed. D.(1983) Curriculum and Instruction Focus on Teaching Foreign Languages University of Northern Colorado Greeley, Colorado	Consulting	Vietnamese in Practice-1986 30 Easy Activities for Reading--1991 Let's Read Thai--1991 Language 30 (Thai)--1993 Thai Basic Reading--1993
Dissertation--1983: A Comparison of the Effectiveness of Three Modes of English Dialogue Presentation to Thai Students: Oral, Written, and Simultaneous Oral and Written	Conduct Myers Briggs Type Indicators workshop and interpretation for group and individual	Thai Sounds System and Reading Rules-1994
M.Ed (1973) Guidance and Counseling	Design and conduct Cross-cultural Workshop--specialize in SEA cultures	Everyday Thai (for beginners)-1997
The College of Education Prasarnmitr (present-Srinakarinwirot University) Bangkok, Thailand	Conduct workshop on Language Curriculum planning and Classroom Instructional Designs for Foreign Language Teaching	Essential English Thai/Thai English Glossary--2000
Theses-1973 The Comparative Study of the 15 Personality Needs between the Teacher Training Students and the Agricultural Students in	Past Experiences	Thai International News Reading – 2005 (Reading for Advanced
	Language Training Supervisor Burmese, Indonesian, Lao Malay Tetun and Thai languages

Undornthani Province

B.Ed (1971) English Education

Focus on Teaching English as a Foreign Language

The College of Education Mahasarakham

(present-Mahasarakham University) Mahasarakham, Thailand

Foreign Service Institute,
Department of State
Washington D.C.

Thai Language Instructor,
University of Wisconsin, Madison

Thai Language Instructor, SEA
Language Coordinator—SAIS-
Johns Hopkins University,
Washington D.C.

Language and Culture Instructor
Foreign Service Institute

Project Director
Opportunity System Inc
Refugee and Migration Studies

Program Manager--Refugee Resettlement
International Rescue Committee

Program Director—Khmer, Lao, and Vietnamese Languages
Indochinese Community Center
Washington D.C.

Deputy Director for Cross-cultural Training
U.S. Peace Corps, Thailand

Language and Culture Instructor
U.S. Peace Corps, Thailand
Secondary School English Teacher
Thailand

Taught English as a second language to D.C. Public School
Adult Refugees and Migrants,
Washington D.C.

Readers)

Pictures and Captions—2006
(Reading Exercises for beginners)

Introduction to Thai Authentic
Materials—2006

(Also supervised, designed, and edited materials in Burmese, Indonesian, Lao, and Malay languages.)

Dr. Prawet Jantharat is currently an independent language consultant specializing in testing, material development and teacher training. He recently retired from the Foreign Service Institute as a Language Training Supervisor of Mainland Southeast Asian Languages. He has extensive experience in conducting workshops in language teaching, teaching methodology, material development and cross cultural training for various organizations and educational institutions including the Southeast Asian Studies Summer Institute and Council of Teachers of Southeast Asian Languages. He has published numerous books and on-line materials on Thai language teaching. He was a trained tester and trained examiner at the Foreign Service Institute and attended many ACTFL seminars on testing. In addition to being a Thai examiner for Columbia University, he is the main external Examiner of the Thai language for the Critical Language Programs at Samford University, University of Alabama, University of Arizona, and Ohio University. Currently, he is a member of “Thai Proficiency Test” development at Sirindhorn Thai Language Center at Chulalongkorn University in Bangkok Thailand.